

The Douglass Spotlight

Dec.
2023

douglass.rutgers.edu

@rudouglass

Watch!

Happy Holidays from Dean Rehbein

Season's greetings! Warm wishes from the entire Douglass family as we embrace the winter season and usher in a new year filled with peace, rest, and hope. We trust this message finds you surrounded by the love and joy of family and friends, sharing the care and connection that make this season truly special. Reflecting on the past year, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to our students, staff, alums, and donors who have contributed to the remarkable success of Douglass Residential College. View our e-card and read more from Dean Rehbein here!

Watch!

Douglass Perspectives

Episode 3: Live From Douglass Day

In this special episode of Douglass Perspectives, join Dean Meghan Rehbein and Douglass Governing Council President Sana Amanullah DRC'24 live from Douglass Day. Tune in for an insightful discussion about today's Douglass with our new dean! See more!

News

Advancing Women in Computer Science Receives Presidential Award

The Rutgers Advancing Women in Computer Science (AWiCS) group was awarded the Presidential Award for Service to Students. AWiCS is an inter-unit initiative between Douglass and RU units that promotes women in computer science across university offerings including through department coursework, enrichment programs, and structural change. Read more!

You're Invited to NYC!

When Women Lead:
An Intergenerational Perspective

January 24, 2024, 6 - 8 PM, NYC

Join us for an evening of networking and spirited conversation to explore the transformative impact of women's leadership. Featuring Dr. Kristy Clementina Perez DC'01, Wendy Cai Lee DC'96, and Princess Belton DRC '11. Introduction by Rebecca Mark, Director of the Institute for Women's Leadership and moderated by Meghan Rehbein, Dean of Douglass. RSVP!

'Tis the Season for Giving!

Give the gift of a Douglass education to celebrate the season! Your gift to Douglass by the end of the year can provide life-long impact for talented students. As 2023 comes to a close, consider supporting Douglass with worthwhile year-end giving strategies. Read more about ways to give to Douglass!