Twenty years ago, the United Nations International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD) in Egypt yielded a shared commitment of 179 countries to cultivate healthy and productive lives without discrimination. The Global Summit, designed for and by students, celebrates this agreement and provides the community with a space to grapple with these important global issues. Faculty, staff, and members of the surrounding community will also be inspired by this event.

1st Annual DOUGLASS GLOBAL SUMMIT

WOMEN’S HEALTH AND DIGNITY FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

with keynote speaker Dr. Nafis Sadik, M.D.

Saturday, November 22, 2014
Trayes Hall, Douglass Student Center
10:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m.

Hosted by Douglass Residential College, the event will inspire future global leaders to improve women’s and girls’ health worldwide through the promotion of human rights and dignity and advancing gender equality. Undergraduate students are encouraged to attend, exhibit their works, or present on related research during the event.

Dr. Nafis Sadik, M.D.—former executive director of UNFPA, special advisor to the UN Secretary-General, and special envoy for HIV/AIDS in Asia and the Pacific—will deliver the keynote address.

Registration, agenda, and exhibit/presentation forms: douglass.rutgers.edu/global-summit

Want to present or exhibit your work?
Visit douglass.rutgers.edu/global-summit. Contact Margot Baruch at mbaruch@echo.rutgers.edu for questions.